Fall 2017 Bicentennial Ramble - Atmore and Stockton

Exploring Alabama's Territorial Past - September 22-23

Join us on Friday, Sept. 22, at 4:30 pm with a tour of the Poarch Creek Indian Museum on the reservation near Atmore, then on to a reception hosted by The Poarch Creek Tribe and Goodwyn, Mills and Caywood Engineering Firm. Saturday morning, Sept. 23, begins with a visit to the grave of William "Red Eagle" Weatherford and a tour Fort Mims. Then we drive through the Tensaw Delta area visiting some early examples of historical architecture, including the David Mims home, that served as a stagecoach stop and post office. Lunch will be at the Stockton Presbyterian Church with local history presentations.
