

David B. Schneider Executive Director

David B. Schneider is the Executive Director of the Alabama Trust for Historic Preservation. With more than twenty-seven years of professional historic preservation experience, Mr. Schneider is the former Executive Director of the Historic Beaufort Foundation in Beaufort, South Carolina (1995-1999); the Historic Preservation Trust of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania (1990-1995); and the Berkeley County (South Carolina) Historical Society Museum (1989-1990). As the Principal of Schneider Historic Preservation, LLC from 1999 to 2009, he successfully completed a diverse range of projects for both private and public sector clients in ten states, specializing in community preservation planning, design review in historic districts, historic resource documentation, and the certification of projects for historic rehabilitation tax credits.

Mr. Prior to 1989, Mr. Schneider was a historic preservation consultant based in Charleston, South Carolina and worked in both real estate and construction. He holds a Master of Arts degree in Historic Preservation from Middle Tennessee State University and a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Georgia.

Active in numerous professional and community organizations, he currently serves as vice-chairman of the City of Anniston Historic Preservation Commission and he is a former Board member for the Alabama Trust for Historic Preservation. Mr. Schneider is also a former Vice President for Southeast Capital Investments, Inc., a regional commercial real estate development and brokerage company.

Mr. Schneider lives in Anniston, where he is (slowly!) restoring the Frye-Turner-Maury House built in 1889.

Our Mission
